Let's Start!

Let's watch a movie or TV show!

Learning Outcome

Describe past experiences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What TV shows do you like to watch?
- What movies do you like to watch?
- Where do you watch TV shows or movies?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about movies.
- I can talk about past experiences.
- I can ask and respond to who, what, when, where, why, and how questions.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally had a lot of fun last night! Let's find out what they each did!

* To "have a lot of fun" is to have a very good time.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hello?
Sally: Hello, Vanessa? It's Sally.
Vanessa: Hi, Sally! How are things?
Sally: I'm good. What did you do last night?
Vanessa: Well, Peter and I went out.
Sally: Where did you go?
Vanessa: We went to the movies. We saw a scary movie. He's a big fan of gore, too!
Sally: No way! Fun!
Vanessa: Oh, for sure. You know how much I love watching zombie movies. We had the popcorn special.
Sally: When did you get home?
Vanessa: Around 11. What did you do?
Sally: I didn't go out. John and I stayed home and watched back to back episodes of TV shows.
Vanessa: Binge-watching! Wow! How was that?
Sally: We saw 8 episodes one after another. It was so exciting!
Vanessa: Sounds like you had a lot of fun!

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

Some verbs are regular and some verbs are irregular in the Simple Past tense in the affirmative form. They have the same structure in the negative and interrogative forms and Wh- questions.

Regular Verbs form the Past tense by adding -d, -ed or -ied.
Irregular Verbs have different endings.

Some Irregular Past tense verbs are:

to see -- saw
to do -- did to go -- went

Look at the chart and compare.

Form	Regular Verbs	Irregular Verbs
Affirmative	I watched TV.	I went to the movies.
Negative	We didn't watch TV.	I didn't go to the movies.
Interrogative	What did you watch? Did you watch TV?	Where did you go? Did you go to the party?
