

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

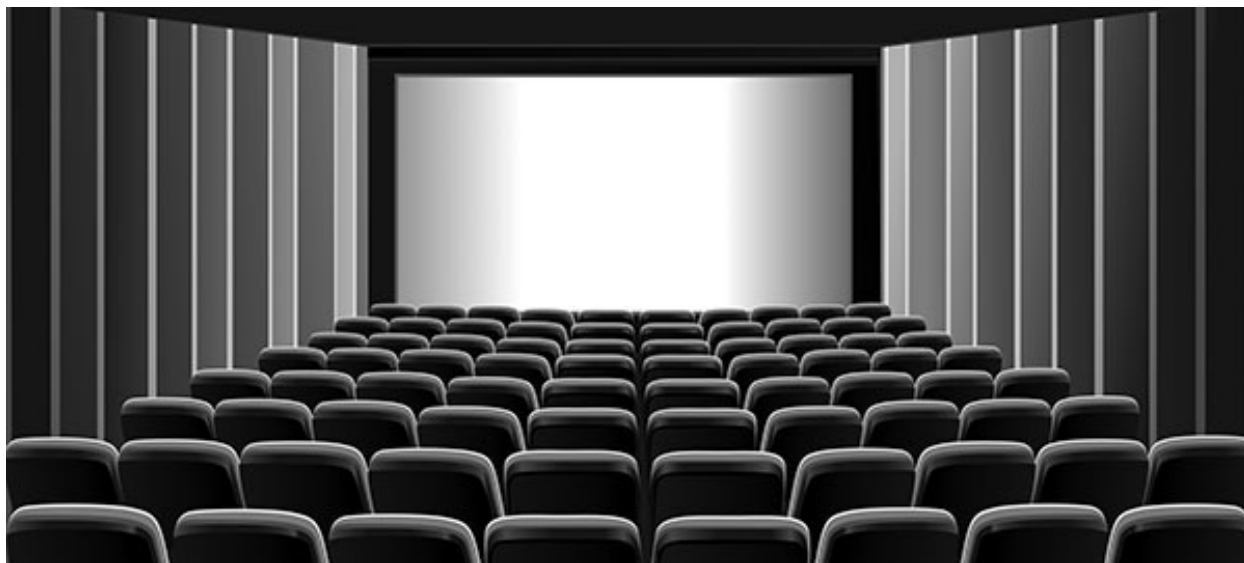

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Let's talk about a movie we saw!

Learning Outcome

Describe past experiences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite movie?
- What was it about?
- Why is it your favorite movie?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about movies.
- I can write a short film review in the past.
- I can talk about people and/or refer to them.

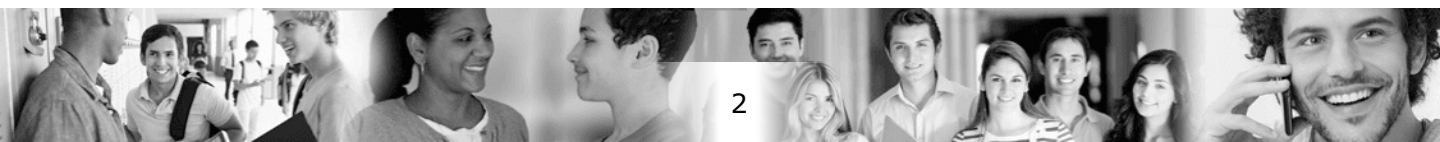

Let's Explore!

Listen to Peter and Vanessa talk about the movie The Letter. Do they recommend the movie?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: So, what did you think?
- Vanessa: Of The Letter? Well, you know I love romances. The characters, Sharon Simons and Ben Styler, were so believable.
- Peter: I thought that it was a little boring. I prefer action movies. Plus, it seemed too long to me - 2.5 hours!
- Vanessa: Well, I really enjoyed the French setting. It was interesting to watch a movie about a couple in Paris in the 1940's. Everything was so different then, like sending letters instead of e-mails and texts.
- Peter: I guess ... The director, Robert O'Neill also makes other types of movies ... The types I prefer more ...
- Vanessa: Oh, Peter, didn't you like that he was a pilot in the war? There was a lot of action in those parts.
- Peter: Some of it, yes, but when he died, the whole movie theater was crying, including you, Vanessa.
- Vanessa: Hey, it was sad in the end. I think John and Sally need to see the movie. I'm going to recommend they watch it. I really enjoyed it.
- Peter: Sorry, I don't agree with you.
- Vanessa: And, by the way, Peter, there were tears in your eyes too!

Let's Practice!

Subject pronoun or object pronoun? You decide!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: her, it, us, you.

1. I'm going to recommend that they watch _____. The movie was great!
2. These movies make _____ cry. She was sad.
3. Hey, _____ were sad in the end. Are you ok?
4. She doesn't agree with ____.

Let's Practice!

Can you organize a movie review? Let's find out!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 1. Robert O'Neill directed the film The Letter . | a. What happens? |
| 2. It was interesting to watch a movie about a couple in Paris in the 1940s. | b. Title of movie and director? |
| 3. The characters, Sharon Simons and Ben Styler, were so believable. | c. The place and time of the film? |
| 4. I'm going to recommend they watch it. | d. The main characters? |
| 5. A pilot in the war writes letters to his girlfriend. At the end of the movie, he dies. | e. A recommendation? |

Extension Activity

In the lesson, you wrote a movie review. Now, write a book review!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write 5 sentences.
- Include an introduction that includes the name of the author and title of the book. (2 sentences)
- Include the setting, character and what happened. (3 sentences)
- Would you recommend this book? (2 sentences)
- Share your review with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write a review about a book.

☐
☐

I use capital letters and periods when I write a review.

☐
☐

I share my review with a partner.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to begin (verb): to start
e.g. How do you begin a movie review?
- to end (verb): to finish
e.g. How does a movie review end?
- to enjoy (verb): to take pleasure in something
e.g. I really enjoyed it.
- awesome (adjective): extremely good e.g. Sharon Simons and Ben Styler are awesome actors!
- to recommend (verb): to feel a certain way about something e.g. I can't recommend it to John.
- setting (noun): where something happens; location
e.g. I really enjoyed the French setting.
- introduction (noun): the start; beginning
e.g. You begin a paragraph or speech with an introduction.
- romance (noun): excitement to do with love
e.g. I love romance novels.

Learning Points

Subject and Object Pronouns

We use subject pronouns as subjects of sentences and object pronouns as objects.

Subject Pronouns

Singular	Plural
I	we
you	you
he/she/it	they

Subjects go at the start of the sentence. They do the action.

Example:

Peter goes to movies.

He goes to movies.

Object Pronouns

Singular	Plural
me	us
you	you
him/her/it	them

Objects go at the end of the sentence. They receive the action.

Example:

Vanessa saw a movie on Saturday.

Vanessa saw it on Saturday.

Learning Points

Simple Past tense

You use the Simple Past to talk about an action that starts and finishes at a specific time in the past.

You add -ed to regular verbs

Verbs ending in a ...
silent "e"	close = closed die = died phone = phoned
vowel + y	play = played destroy = destroyed
consonant + y	marry = married carry = carried study = studied
other forms	visit = visited miss = missed watch = watched finish = finished fix = fixed

Important irregular verbs

The three most important irregular verbs are BE, HAVE, and DO.

Pronoun	BE	HAVE	DO
I	was	had	did
You	were	had	did
He / she / it	was	had	did
We	were	had	did
They	were	had	did

Learning Points

Other irregular verbs fall into three main categories:

Category	Examples
Verbs that don't change	cut - cut
Verbs that change their vowel	get - got sit - sat drink - drank
Verbs that change completely	catch - caught bring - brought teach - taught

