Let's Start!

What is your favorite movie?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Who is your favorite actor?
- What characters does he or she play?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about movies.
- I can ask and respond to who, what, when, where, why, and how questions.
- I can say what I want and/or prefer to do.

Let's Explore!

Sally and John want to watch a Batman movie. Which movie do they choose?
Let's find out!

* "Batman" is a popular American superhero comic book character and a very important part of American culture.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Wow! Those were the most amazing six hours!

John: Yeah! I want to watch more. Do you?

Sally: Sure!

John: Let's see. What do we have here? How about Batman?

Sally: Batman? Which one?

John: There's the one with Christian Bale, The Dark Knight Rises.

Sally: And the other?

John: That's another one with Michael Keaton.

Sally: I would prefer to see The Dark Knight Rises. It has very good photography and screenplay. It has a great plot as well, and Christian Bale is a good actor. I think he is the best Batman.

John: You are a big fan of Christian Bale! I didn't know that!

Sally: Well, I also like the work of the director, Christopher Nolan. I think he made the best Batman movies.

John: Alright! The Dark Knight Rises it is!

Let's Practice!
