Let's Explore!

Sally and John want to go for the matinée. Do they stop at the concession stand?

* Some words in English have accents and are taken from other languages. "Matinée" is a French word.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hi John.
John: Hey, Sally. What's up?
Sally: Vanessa and Peter saw a really exciting movie.
John: Really? When did they watch the film?
Sally: They watched it on Thursday. It was a horror film.
John: Oh!
Sally: I'm a big fan of gore. I want to watch this scary movie. Can you watch the horror movie with me?
John: Hmm, well, I prefer to watch action movies and reality TV shows, but I'll go with you.
Sally: Really? I didn't know you like to watch reality TV shows!
John: Well, I do. What time do you want to see the show?
Sally: Let's go for the matinée. I need to get home early.
John: OK, sure.
John: Let's get some popcorn at the concession stand. How much for the popcorn?
Clerk: The special is $4.75.
John: Can we get the special, please?
