Let's Start!

What TV shows do you watch?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions, and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about TV shows.
- I can talk about past experiences.
- I can show interest and surprise.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite TV show?
- How often do you watch it?
- What was your favorite TV show when you were young?

Let's Explore!

Sally and John watched the TV show "Friends". Who was John's favorite character*?

* "Friends" is a popular television show all over the world.

 A "character" is a role played by an actor in a film or television show.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hey, John! Let's watch Friends all day.
John: Like binge-watch?
Sally: Yeah. Watch all the episodes back to back.
John: Okay. Wow ... Friends. I remember the first episode. I was in college.
Sally: Me, too!
John: What did you watch before Friends?
Sally: Baywatch.
John: Really?
Sally: It was my favorite. Every Thursday, all my friends came over. We ordered pizza and watched the show. We loved that show. Now I watch a lot of reality TV. The Last Survivor is my current favorite. What about you?
John: I didn't watch a lot of television in those days. Friends changed that for me. I really liked Rachel. I wanted to know what she did every day.
John: Oh, the pizza is here!
Sally: Mmmm, pizza with pepperoni!
John: Let's eat!

Let's Practice!
