Let's Start!

Let's watch a movie!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you watch films?
- What kind of movies do you like to see?
- Which is your favorite?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about movies.
- I can ask and respond to who, what, when, where, why, and how questions.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa has to be home early. Let's catch a matinée then!

* Some words in English have accents and come from other languages. "Matinée" is a French word.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hey, Peter! Do you have any plans for today?
Peter: Not really. What do you have in mind?
Vanessa: Let's watch a movie!
Peter: Hmm! That's a great idea.
Vanessa: Do you want to rent a DVD?
Peter: Oh, no! Let's go to the movie theater.
Vanessa: I can't remember the last time I went to a movie theater. Let's do that!
Peter: What do you want to see? Comedy, action, romance, fantasy?
Vanessa: I like romance, comedy and action. I prefer to watch a comedy.
Peter: Okay. What show do you want to watch? The first show? The last show?
Vanessa: Uh ... I need to be home early tonight.
Peter: Why?
Vanessa: I call my Aunt Nelly on Tuesday evenings. You remember her, right?
Peter: Oh, yes. How is she?
Vanessa: She's well, thanks.
Peter: Well, in that case, let's go for a matinée then.

Let's Practice!
